Open Management Development Programmes

In an ever changing business world, acquiring and updating knowledge and skills is a must for individual and organizational success. The quality and relevance of training input thus assumes a critical significance for business professionals. FORE School of Management (FORE), one of the best business schools in the country, has been a leader in design and conduct of Management Development Programmes not only in terms of numbers and variety but also in reach and relevance of its offerings. FORE MDPs aim to equip business managers with knowledge, skills and attitudes for effectively responding to global developments and competitive requirements. These programmes are designed with an appropriate blend of conceptual knowledge and experiential learning to germinate, grow and harvest the soft, technical and managerial skills of participants in the contemporary business context. The emphasis is on developing ability to apply learning in an efficient and effective decision making in real world to boost the performance and privity of the organizations - be it in the private, public, government, social or non-governmental sectors.

In-company Programmes

FORE also conducts a large number of customized in-company MDPs. These programmes are designed according to specific needs of the organizations. The pedagogy used is in keeping with the background, experience and aspirations of participants as specified by the sponsoring organizations. A partial list of organizations for which FORE conducted customized in-company programmes during 2017-2018 includes: ONGC Academy, Horizon Worldwide, GAIL, Indian Oil Corporation (Pipeline Division), RITES, Relaxo Footwears Limited, Numaligarh Refinery Limited, Thales India Pvt. Ltd., ONGC Mangalore Petrochemicals, Punjab National Bank, Biotechnology Industry Assistance Council (BIRAC), Airports Authority of India etc.

Online Executive Education Programmes

Beginning last year, FORE has been successfully conducting several Online Certification Programmes for Working Professionals in contemporary functional domains of Management. Courses successfully launched include- 6 months Online Certificate Programme in Big Data and Data Analytics in collaboration with University of California Riverside (UCR), USA, 11 months Online Executive Management Programme (EMP) in partnership with Seneca College, Toronto Canada, Certificate programmes in Business Storytelling and Tableau & Data Visualization etc.

I feel delighted to share FORE Open MDPs schedule for the year 2018-19 with you. Each year we present a bouquet of training programmes to address various industry needs across management functions. These programmes are designed after thorough interaction and feedback from business leaders such that each offering provides distinct solutions to current and future business challenges. Our MDPs focus on ever changing learning needs of the organizations and individuals and help them to upgrade their knowledge and skills to cope with complex challenges of the present day global businesses.

FORE has been helping a large number of reputed public, private, and social sector organizations for last 35 years in their quest of excellence as their Learning Partner. We take pride in our efforts to help shape business leaders of tomorrow not only during a training programme but through the entire learning cycle beginning with training need analysis, choosing and administering the appropriate intervention, and providing post programme evaluation and support.

This calendar offers a diverse portfolio of highly focused training programmes across functional areas of management for you to choose from.

I am sure you will make full use of the offerings and engage with us in this ever continuing odyssey of learning and development.

Please feel free to contact us if you need any further details or assistance.
